

Application procedure

‘The Discovery of Will’ programme is open to anyone who considers they have the necessary self-capacity to manage the four-day intensive (we suggest age 25 or over, though younger people have attended).

If you are interested in applying, please include the following information (on a separate sheet) with your deposit:

1. Name, address and telephone number
2. Age and occupation
3. What is your current living situation?
– Do you have a partner or spouse? Children? Do they live with you?
4. Next of kin and contact details of next of kin
5. Educational and professional background
6. Please give details of any experience in the field of psychology
7. Are you currently seeing a counsellor or therapist?
8. Are you undergoing or have you ever undergone psychiatric treatment? If so, please give details
9. Are you undergoing treatment for any medical condition? If so, what medication are you taking?
10. Have you attended any other personal development courses? Please give details.
11. Which books, films or music have had a significant impact on you? Underline those read or experienced in the last two years.
12. What was your experience of your family of origin?
13. How would you describe your current support system?
14. Briefly describe the most significant turning points and periods of reorientation in your life, paying particular attention to their impact on you.
15. What changes would you like to see in your life over the next few years? Explain why these changes are important to you.
16. How did you come to hear about the course?